violating every rule of the prize ring and causing the police to interfere in the fifth round. Murray promised to do better, and the contest was resumed, but there was little improvement. Whenever Murray broke clean and fought fair he was knocked down by McFadden.

Erne Got the Decision.

Erne Got the Decision.

Frank Erne and "Chicago" Jack Daly fought six lively rounds before the Ft. Dearborn Athletic Club, Chicago, last night. Erne getting the decision. For five rounds both men put up a clever exhibition, Erne doing most of the leading and having the better of the contest. In the sixth round Erne attempted to knock Daly out, but found the contract too much for one round. Several times the champion sent Daly's head back with vicious lefts and crossed over with a right on the jaw, but the Chicago boy stood the punishment, and near the close of the round just missed Erne's jaw with a left swing that would have ended the contest in his favor. Daly almost fell from the force of the blow, and Erne landed heavily on his jaw with a right uppercut that almost put the Chicago fighter out.

Oscar Gardner is now at West Baden, where he will remain for two weeks, training for his fight with Terry Mo-Govern, which takes place in New York, March 9. Gardner began light work, yesterday, and while there will simply fit himself for the two weeks' finish in his training, which will be much harder than that usually attempted by featherweights. He thinks well of his chances and says that McGovern, will have his hands full when he meets him. Gardner is one of the best ring generals in the country. With Gardner's hands in proper trim he is a fighting machine of the same character as the Brooklyn whitriwind.

The Polo Championship.

The Polo Championship.

Muncie, Ind., February 10.—Goals, not games, will count in deciding the roller polo championship of the West, in the contests between Muncie and Richmond teams. The series, as arranged, calls for seven games. All will be played, and the team having made the greatest number of goals at the end of the seventh game will be declared the winner of the championship. Three contests will be played in Muncie and three in Richmond, and the seventh game either on neutral ground or in the city which promises the best attendance. The Muncie team has just returned from a victorious trip to Racine, Wis., where the Royals easily defeated the Lakesides.

Baseball Briefs. Tom Loftus says he will be actively engaged in managing the Chicago club next season, and denies that he will re-sign his position to continue in the Amer-ican League in charge of the Cleveland club.

ican League in charge of the Cleveland club.

The Providence club owners will not even send a representative to the American Association meeting, which takes place in Chicago, next Monday. Unless President Quinn has something startling to propose at that meeting, it may be the last of the new organization.

The baseball season in the American League will probably open later than usual, this spring. In Louisville a new stand will have to be rebuilt, and Comiskey will have to be rebuilt, and Comiskey will have to be rebuilt, and Comiskey will have to practically make new grounds in Chicago. The Indianapolis park will be finished on time.

President Ebbitts, of Brooklyn, after stumbling all around the question and doing much to delay matters, is now anxious to see the League circuit reduced to eight clubs. If Ebbitts and his associates in Brooklyn and Baltimore had taken this position two months ago, the circuit would have now been made up, and many of the teams completed, and the magnafes would not have had the Association scars.

THE VICTORY OF SALISBURY

SHOWS THAT CONSERVATIVES ARE STRONG IN THE LAND,

Less Criticism of the Government's Policy-Fund for Talbot Memorial-Dickens Not Forgotten.

[Copyrighted, 1900, by Associated Press.] London, February 10.-It has been great week for the government. Lord Salisbury held his own in Parliament and with the country. The disunited Liberal party was no match for the Conservative organization, and even the small minorities mustered into the lobdes were largely leavened with discontented members, who, much against their wills, voted in favor of the party amendment. The crushing government victory in the by-election at York and the definite break between the Liberals and the reunited Irish leaves the field clear for the party in power. Already a meeting of the Liberal party has been called to express confidence in its lead-er in the House of Commons, Sir Henry er in the House of Commons, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, and it is freely rumored that he meditates throwing up the thankless task of the nominal leadership, and that the opposition is turning wistful eyes in the direction of Lord Rosebery. That so-called sphinx, however, is much too astute to re-take the guidance of such an ill-conditioned body during a period so crucial in the country's history. try's history.

The reuniting of the Irish members un-der John Redmond may be regarded more as a personal triumph for that stalwart independent than as having a serious bearing on the politics of the immediate future. The organs of all the Irish parties are unanimous in declaring he is the right man in the right place. Yet, since the downfall of Charles Stewart Parnell, Mr. Redmond's hand has been against almost every other man's, steadfastly refusing all compromise, until, by sheer strength of character, he has forced his countrymen to acknowledge his abilities as a leader of no mean order. However, while his party continues to act without alliance with any English section, he can accomplish practically nothing.

The most instructive index of public feeling is the cessation of bitter criticism of the government by the leading organs, after the youing in the House of ndependent than as having a serious Yale has forty candidates in training for positions on her blcycle team, under the direction of Captain Strong. He will be assisted by a professional racing man and a trainer. Conway W. Sams, in coming out in favor of the L. A. feeling is the cessation of bitter criticism of the government by the leading organs, after the voting in the House of Commons and at York had proved that, right or wrong. Lord Salisbury's cabinet retained its hold. With the exception of Joseph Chamberlain's statesmanlike speech, Timothy Healy's stands out as a bright exception to a rather featureless debate. While he stirred the anger of the Liberals and Conservatives alike, and outraged their patriotism, Mr. Healy's was the finest rhetorical effort heard since the House convened.

Harry Varden, the golf champion, will charge $250 for each exhibition which he gives while in this country. These will be in addition to his regular match games with the American cracks. Several other English golfers expect to visit the United States early this spring.

In the evening contest, Wilson P. Foss, of Haverstraw, N. Y., defeated Charles Threshle, of Boston, winner in the last championship tournament, by a score of 400 to $5. Harry Varden, the English golf champion, who arrived in the United States last Saturday, will play his first match game in the South on the links of the East Coast Golf Club, at St. Augustine, Fla., February 17. He will play at Ormonde, February 20; Palm Beach, February 22, and Miami, February 24. His opponents will probably be Willie Smith, the American champion; George Low, Alexander H. Findley and Arthur H. Fenn. William Hoare and Bernad Nicholls are also in the South, and are willing to meet the English champion.

R.A.Welch, P. I. Bradley, Wallie Watrous, and H. Yale Dolan, four crack American amateur live-bird shots, will probably represent this country in the shooting championships which take place in connection with the Paris Exposition. Commenting on their going abroad as representative American amateur live bird shots, Fred Quimby, who was in the city this week, attending the Limited Gun Club tournament, said there are half a dozen shots right here in Indiana who are better qualified to represent this country. The centenary of the birth of the late William Henry Fox Talbot (February 11), William Henry Fox Taipot (February II), the father of photography, is being celebrated by raising a memorial fund, which is to be devoted to the restoration of the church at Laycock Abbey, Wiltshire, Taibot's old home. torials. The serious illness of Sir William Lockhart, the commander-in-chief in In-dia, will probably oblige him to return home. He has not been well since he went out, and his duties have greatly devolved on Major-General Sir William G. Nicholson, the adjutant-general, who has now gone on Lord Roberts' staff. Another staff officer, to whom Lord Roberts is reported to submit all strategy, is Colonel Henderson, who gained a rep-utation by a "Life of Stonewall Jack-son" and a minute study of the civil war. It is finally announced that in spite of all delays, the Crown Princess Stephanic, of Austria, widow of the Crown Prince will marry Count von Lonya

Rudolph, will marry Count von Lonyay March 3, and now. according to Vanity Fair, the heir to the Austrian throne. Archduke Ferdinand, three months ago married Countess Chotek, for her sake resigning his claims to rule. She is a handsome lady-in-waiting of Princess Stephanie.

The forthcoming marriage of Lord Chesterfield to Miss Enid Wilson will be a brilliant affair, and will set precedent at naught, the bride wearing a sath train, embroidered with silver lilles, doves and stars, while the bridesmalds will wear scarlet cloth coats with triple capes and picturesque felt hats.

Once again this week the little band known as the Dickens Society gathered in Westmirster Abbey and placed wreaths on the tomb of the novelist, to show that his anniversary was not forgotten. Among the many floral tributes was one inscribed "Annie and Edwin Drew," while several Americans were among those who, in the quiet poets' corner, listened to the low-spoken address of the society's secretary,

STOPS IRREGULARITIES

Brookshire, Texas, Feb. 25, 1898. My periodical illnesses have been very irregular. They would return in every 24 or 25 days, and last from 5 to 14 days. I would almost suffer death from them. I also had heart palpitation, and every kind of ache and pain. I took Wine of Cardui and followed your advice, and this month, for the first time in years, I passed my period without pain.

MALINDA JACKSON.

Think of such suffering as this. Long years of aches and pains that might have been saved. That's the pitiful part of it—to think that Miss Jackson did not try Wine of Cardul years ago. It would have cured her then as easily as it did later, and what it did for her it will do for you. It banishes headaches, and backa
